

MARPARTS

Quality, durability and value in spare parts

Protecting engines, reducing fuel consumption and therefore costs is the ultimate objective of MARIDIS products. With the same care we put into preparing our own products, we also choose the manufacturers and spare parts that we offer. MarParts specializes in the worldwide delivery of OEM and genuine spare parts.

Delivering expertise and continuous availability

We have made it our task to provide expert services for diesel engines. Having available a considerable stock of spares, the company is able to ensure the supply of all kinds of engine parts as well as immediate and adequate support. In order to be able to better assess our service and spare parts offer, take a closer look at the current list of 2- and 4-stroke diesel engines.
